NO CAUSE FOR RESPONDENCY

W. J. Bryan Addresses Michigan Democracy.

DISCUSSES MR. ADDICKS

Thinks Him No Worse than Other Senators Who Have Bought Their Seats—Not Ashamed of Running Cleveland Out of the Party.

(By Associated Press.)

DETROIT, MICH., March 10.—Without the presence of William Jennings Bryan, who made an address at the morning session, to-day's Democratic State Judicial Convention at the Light Guard Armory in this city, would have been featureless. Judge George L. Yapple, of Mendon, who is the nominee for Supreme judge for a term of ten years to succeed Judge Frank A. Hooper, was nominated without any other name being presented to the convention. For regents of the State University, Wellington R. Burt, of Saginaw, and Willis J. Abbott, of Battle Creek, editor of the Pilgrim Magazine, were nominated.

The resolutions adopted merely bespeak the support of "thoughtful citizens" for those principles of government which find expression through the national platform of the party. This is the only reference made to national platforms.

The initiative and referendum is demanded and the recent coal strike is taken as an indication of the necessity for the municipal ownership of public utilities.

MR. BRYAN'S TALK.

Mr. Bryan, in his address, said: "No Democrat has reason to be despondent. We must not work on the principle of expediency. We must be sure we are building on the right ground. There never was a time when there was a great need for the application of Democratic principles than to-day.

"Down East, in Delaware, I learned more about some other things than about future candidates for the presidency. I learned that many Republicans were fighting against a man named Addicks. I found that in some places three-quarters of the voters had received money for their votes. But I could not draw the line between Addicks and the money. I found that with his own money and ran it for his own interests, and the other men who buy office for a corporation and run it for the interests of the corporation."

"What, my friends, do you do with men who buy senatorships with the money of corporations and go to Congress as slaves of the corporations? The Senate would not even take up for consideration the House bill for the control of trusts. These men are worse than Addicks. If you wanted anything from the Delaware man you would have to talk Addicks; but in these other cases you would have to go the masters of the office holder."

"I can't draw a distinction between the men who sell their votes for $5 and the one who makes a million trading in party policies. I remember a case where J. F. Morgan made millions on a matter of Republican policy. All the difference between Addicks and the rest is that he confessed openly to what the others do secretly."

"I have been accused of preventing harmony. No man wants harmony more than I do, and no one has suffered more for lack of it than I have. But you can't keep in one organization men who want to out each other's throats. They accuse me of saying hard things about Cleveland. I never said anything about him so hard as did President McKinley, who said: 'Cleveland is trying to make money the master and everything else the servant.'"

"I am not ashamed of any humble part I may have had in driving out of the Democratic party a man who tried to make money the master and everything else the servant. I want him in some other party than ours. I would be glad to help organize one for his exclusive use."
